

Jenkins County Memorial Library News 10-5-22

October is here, and the spooky season has begun. Come into the library and see what we have to offer to get you in the “spirit”! From horror novels to haunting non-fiction, classic Halloween movies to audiobooks from some of the scariest authors around, we bet you can find something that will send a shiver up your spine!

Can't find any books or audiobooks in the library that you haven't read or listened to? Head over to Libby, the app and website where you can check out even more great downloadable ebooks and audiobooks for free with your library card! Whether you want to listen to it on your car radio as you take a long trip, read it while waiting in line, or check one out on a Sunday when the library's closed, Libby can keep you well-supplied with great ebooks and audiobooks! You can get instructions on how to access Libby on the library's website at www.sjrls.org

Teen Read Week is October 9 through October 15. It's a great time to encourage teens (and everyone else) to grab a book and just settle in and read for a while!

Will you be at the Fair on the Square on September 15? We will be stopping in and doing a storytime at the Friends of the Library booth right across the street from the library at 11 am!

The Jenkins County Memorial Library Board of Trustees will be meeting at 10:30 am on Thursday, October 20 at the library. The Screven-Jenkins Regional Library Board of Trustees will be meeting at 4 pm on Thursday, October 27 at 4 pm in the Screven County Library.

On Friday, October 21 at 3:30 pm we will have another awesome anime event with the JCML Anime Club! This month's movie will be the first two episodes of “Demon Slayer”.

KILLING THE LEGENDS: THE LETHAL DANGER OF CELEBRITY by Bill O'Reilly and Martin Dugard. O'Reilly and Dugard explore the lives and deaths of three of the most famous celebrities of the 20th Century: Elvis Presley, John Lennon, and Muhammad Ali. Each of them changed the world in their own ways, reaching peaks of fame that no one had ever seen – and each faced failures that forced them to change their lives forever. And in the end, each became isolated by their wealth and vulnerable to the demands of those few who remained close to them as they aged and finally died.

Well, that's all for now – see you at the library!
