

1-6-2022 edition of the Screven County Library News

The New Year is here! Are you ready to set off on another trip around the sun, and maybe learn a few things while you're at it? The library is a great place to start. We can help you with your New Year's Resolutions with everything from books on how to sew to DVD exercise programs to instructional services like Mango Languages that will help you learn a new language.

Every Tuesday at 3:30 pm we have a wonderful storytime for your kids to enjoy! They can come in to the library and listen to a story being read to them and then do a fun craft related to the story.

Plus, we still have our Crafts To Go projects available. There's a new one for the kids every week, and new ones for teens and adults every two weeks. Want to do your crafts with your friends? Stop in on Wednesdays at 3:30 pm for an in-person craft time where we make our Crafts To Go right in the library!

The library will be closed on Monday, January 17 in memory of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

The Screven County Library Board of Trustees will meet at 4 pm on Thursday, January 20 in the library. The Screven-Jenkins Regional Library Board will meet at 4 pm on Thursday, January 27 at the Jenkins County Memorial Library.

New at the library

THE SENTENCE by Louise Erdrich. In Minneapolis, there is a small, independent bookstore. From All Souls' Day 2019 until All Souls' Day 2020, it is haunted by the spirit of the store's most annoying customer. Flora died on All Souls' Day, but she refused to leave the store. Tookie is an ex-con bookseller who served her time in prison and took her current job because books were what got her through her incarceration. It's up to Tookie to solve the mystery of Flora's haunting while simultaneously trying to survive a year of grief, astonishment, isolation, and furious reckoning.

Well, that's all for now – see you at the library in 2022!
