

Press release for the 10-21-21 edition of the Sylvania Telephone

Halloween is almost here! This year, the library will be participating in the Downtown Daycare Trick or Treat with a table full of treats for all the girls and boys starting 10 am on Thursday, October 28. Can't make it to that event? Stop by the library in costume on Thursday, October 28, Friday, October 29 or Saturday, October 30 for a treat and your picture just might wind up on our Facebook page as well!

It's time to start planning for holiday feasts and gift giving, and we can help. We have a great collection of cookbooks, craft ideas, and sewing projects to prepare for your holidays, plus tips for holiday décor and more. Come in and check it out!

Did you know you can learn dozens of languages, for free, with some help from your local library? That's right, your library card gives you free access to Mango Languages, where you can have fun and learn at the same time! Whether you want to learn Spanish or Ancient Greek, Japanese or Cherokee, Mango has everything you need to learn how to speak and understand. Best of all, it's only one of the great resources available through GALILEO, free to all residents of Georgia!

The Screven County Library Board of Trustees will be meeting on Thursday, October 21 at 4 pm at the library. The Screven-Jenkins Regional Library Board of Trustees will be meeting on Thursday, October 28 at 4 pm in the Screven County Library.

THE ENTREPRENEUR'S PARADOX: HOW TO OVERCOME THE 16 PITFALLS ALONG THE STARTUP JOURNEY by Curtis J. Morley. The best qualities that an entrepreneur has – brilliance and expertise – are often the very qualities that cause the enterprise to crumble. Stress, long hours, and bills often suck the joy out of the promise of financial freedom that comes with owning your own business and cause the business to fail, but it doesn't have to be that way. Learn to avoid the pitfalls and thrive!

Well, that's all for now – see you at the library!
